

MIDDLEBURG.

Arch Leonard is having quite a siege of typhoid fever.

The woods are alive with squirrels—much to the delight of the sportsman. There are more empty houses in Middleburg at present than have been for years.

An association of the Casey county teachers will be held here the 4th Saturday in this month, and will be largely attended.

The protracted meeting continues at the Christian church and though there has been only one conversion to date, much good is sure to accrue. A good attendance is present at the night services. A protracted meeting will begin at the Baptist church in two weeks.

Mrs. Ann Roy, of Chattanooga, is visiting relatives here. Mrs. E. S. Fisher has returned from the Joseph Price Infirmary at Stanford much improved in health. E. V. Lovelace, of Somerset, who served with the writer in the Philippines, is visiting relatives here.

Capt. Raines, the republican nominee for county judge, tells us he will get many democratic votes. Needless to say, no true democrat will vote for the captain. If the Casey democracy ever did have a candidate that was deserving, competent and warranted a united party such is the case with the candidate of the people, Major W. Jones.

A better fruit country couldn't be found in the United States than on some of our poor ridges and the people are just beginning to awaken to the fact. The peach and apple crop of the Mt. Oliver and Bethel sections this year have brought hundreds of dollars into the pockets of the fruit growers, whereas the same land would have hardly sprouted black-eyed peas. All kinds of fruit, berries and vegetables flourish there.

The following is a program of the Centennial Anniversary of the Baptist church of Middleburg to be held at this place Sept. 20 to 22d:

Sept. 20, 7 P. M., song, "How Firm a Foundation."

2. Sermon, Rev. George Green.

Saturday, Sept. 21st.

1. Devotional Exercises, conducted by Rev. W. E. Foster.

2. Lecture by Dr. T. T. Eaton.

3. Scripture Elements of a New Testament church, Revs. J. N. Bowling, H. M. Shouse and others.

12, noon.

1. Song and Prayer Service.

2. History of the Church, read by Q. R. Jones.

3. Church Covenant read and discussed.

4. Mission of the Church, Revs. W. E. Foster and W. M. Vines.

5. Home Training of Children, Rev. J. B. Ferrell.

Evening session.

1. Devotional Exercises.

2. Mutual Duties of Pastor and Church, Rev. J. E. G. Watkin.

Sunday, 22d.

1. 10 A. M., General Discussion of the Sunday School Lesson.

2. Centennial Sermon by Revs. T. H. Coleman or J. M. Salice.

Noon.

1. General Experience Meeting.

2. Scriptural Nature and the Order of Regeneration, Repentance and Faith, Rev. Eugene Salice and others.

3. Bible Teachings Upon the Doctrine of the Depravity of Human Nature, Rev. R. B. Mahony.

Night.

1. Devotional Exercises.

Lecture, "The Reasons Why We are Baptists," Rev. W. P. Barvey.

The majority of the gentlemen on program were formerly pastors of the Middleburg Baptist church. Some of the most prominent divines of the Baptist persuasion in the South will be present and the meeting promises to be one of the most prominent and of general interest, owing to the character and general make up, that has lately been held by Southern Baptists.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Bloating. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of indigestible food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac. For sale at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford.

"How do you tell the age of a turkey?"

"By the teeth."

"A turkey hasn't got teeth!"

"No; but I have."

The Commonwealth is in possession of now and more damaging evidence against the men charged with the murder of Gov. Goebel. The details of a secret meeting of the mountain henchmen of Taylor and Powers have come to light, and they show more clearly the purpose of the mountain men in going to Frankfort and also the existence of a conspiracy. A former republican Senator acted as chairman of the meeting. He told the men that Goebel had to be shot, that they had come there to do it, and it was their duty to see that it was done. Former Chief Justice Hazelrigg will be one of the witnesses for the Commonwealth in the trial of Jim Howard, and it is said Henry E. Youtsey may appear as a witness for the defense.

WATER CURE FOR CHRONIC CONSTIPATION.

Take two cups of hot water half an hour before each meal and just before going to bed, also a drink of water, hot or cold, about two hours after each meal.

B. F. Sanders & Bro., and Watkins & Caruthers, of Louisville, bought of Simon Well, of Lexington, 18 car loads of top hogs at 5c to be delivered in Cincinnati. Well delivered a car load of them Monday and is to furnish the same number every Monday in October, November and December. Sanders netted $175 on last Monday's load.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

COURT DAY.—There were 140 cattle at A. B. Florence's pens yesterday and about three-fourths of them changed hands. They consisted principally of yearlings and two-year-olds and prices ranged from 2c to 3c. No butcher cattle were offered. A number of mule colts sold, A. J. Brown, of Harrodsburg, buying 30 at $28.31. Aged mules sold at $35 to $145. Few horses were sold.

ASSASSINATED.

A Fiend Named Czolgosz Shoots President McKinley.

Badly Wounded, But The Chief Executive May Recover.

Much Better This Morning.

At 8 o'clock this morning President McKinley was resting easy after a good night. Everything points to his recovery and his doctors are very hopeful.

An anarchist attempted the life of President McKinley in the Temple of Music at the Buffalo Exposition Friday afternoon, as told in the numerous bulletins posted by this office. He was holding a reception and hundreds were coming forward to shake his hand. The would-be assassin had his right hand swathed in a handkerchief or bandage, in which he concealed a revolver. As the president extended his hand to greet him the anarchist fired two shots. One of the shots struck the right breast bone and inflicted only a flesh wound. The other penetrated both walls of the stomach, but above the intestines. The would-be assassin is Leon Czolgosz. He says he is a disciple of Emma Goldman.

He was overpowered at once, and after being roughly handled, was taken in custody by the police and removed later to police headquarters in Buffalo, where later in the day excited crowds surrounded the jail crying: "Lynch him."

In the Metropolitan Methodist church in Washington, where the president is a regular attendant, the Rev. H. R. Naylor, the presiding elder, declared in referring to the attempted assassination of President McKinley that he had almost become a convert to lynch law as the proper mode for punishing such a desperate criminal.

At the close of a prayer service, the members of the congregation adopted a resolution expressing their sympathy for the wounded president.

Six men were arrested in Chicago on information from Buffalo that they were implicated in the plot to assassinate President McKinley. The men were found in one house. The plot is said to have originated among members of the Free Society and the Buffalo prisoner was selected by lot to commit the crime.

A Hoboken man, who claims to be an astrologer, says he sent this message to the president while he was at San Francisco: "Your wife will live another year—until about next February or March—but be careful of yourself. You will be shot or stabbed during the month of June or else in September."

The pistol used by the would-be assassin was of the double derringer variety, with two barrels, one for each bullet. Had the pistol been of a kind holding more than two bullets the president probably would have been killed on the spot.

Messages of sympathy for the stricken president continue to flow into the State department in Washington from the crowned heads, the various governments, diplomats, statesmen and soldiers throughout the world.

The impression that President McKinley is strong physically is said to be a mistake. He has not recovered from last winter's attack of the grippe. He was a much sicker man than the public was aware of.

The improvement in the president's condition was reflected in Wall street yesterday. Stocks advanced and the tone in all financial matters was one of confidence.

In nearly all the churches of the country Sunday special services were held and prayers were offered for the recovery of President McKinley.

Emma Goldman is under surveillance not far from Chicago and her arrest may be expected at any time.

Of 20 rulers slain in the last century, 11 were presidents of republics.

The assassin's name is pronounced as if spelled "Cholgozh."

NOTHING LIKE OIL.

"In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the more severe cases of diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates and a quick cure is sure to follow. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

The first Interstate Fair ever held in the South will take place at the New Louisville Jockey Club grounds, Louisville, beginning Sept. 23 and closing Oct. 5. Exhibits of all kinds, including live-stock, poultry, cereals and manufactured articles will be shown. The railroads will give a round trip rate of one fare.

Is a Candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the 2d District, subject to the will of the democracy.

IN all the annals of assassination, there has never been one so causeless as the attempt on the life of President McKinley, which Friday afternoon shocked the entire civilized world. Elsewhere in this issue the details of the horrible crime are given. In his own unassuming and democratic way the president was receiving his fellow-countrymen in the Temple of Music at Buffalo. A well dressed fiend taking advantage of the time approached and as the head of the greatest nation on earth extended his hand fired two shots from a pistol concealed in a handkerchief. One struck him in the breast and glanced, the other penetrated both walls of the stomach. An anarchist, who gave his name as Leon Czolgosz, did the dastardly deed and he was arrested at once. He is a German Pole, 29 years old, lives in Cleveland, O., and claims to have acted on his own motion without accomplices, because he did not like the government. That it was a damnable plot, however, of those hell spawn of humanity, the anarchists, there can be no doubt, and already a number of them have been arrested, all being foreigners. The killing of a king might upset the government, but no possible good could accrue to those who hate all forms of government and order, by the assassination of a president of the United States. The successor is provided for through many persons, and no matter if the president or those succeeding him be killed, "God reigns and the government at Washington will still live." The attack on Mr. McKinley was therefore as foolish as it was despicable. Besides the president's charming personality should have warded off harm of the sort. He is eminently a man of heart, of generous impulses and of noble bearing. He is loved by men of all parties for kindness, courtesy and patriotism, and is recognized as a model man for the head of a government of the people, by the people and for the people. The attack therefore falls not only upon Mr. McKinley, but upon the whole nation, and calls for the direct punishment. The perpetrator should not have been permitted to live a moment after the crime. That is one case where lynch law would have been thoroughly justifiable and it ought to have been resorted to as there is no adequate punishment for such fiends by the law. Should the president get well Czolgosz could only be given 10 years, the highest penalty in New York for attempted assassination. Anarchy and anarchism should be wiped out of this country and if the law can't do it, let the people act. The prayers of all good people and of a reunited country are ascending to the throne of grace that the great and good man, who has been so ruthlessly and dastardly stricken down shall soon be restored to health and to the country, which loves and honors him for the many noble traits of mind and heart for which he is noted and which stamp him truly great. May God grant him speedy recovery and send death and damnation to the plotters against all governments and drive the last suspicion of anarchy from the land of the free and the home of the brave.

It is gratifying to note that Prof. G. H. Russell won out in his fight for the principalship of the Richmond School. Except that he is a democrat and a gentleman he would never have been turned down by the republican school board in Lexington, where he was superintendent of all the colored schools. There was no intimation that he is incompetent or unworthy, for he is a highly educated and accomplished Negro. He is a democrat and had done good work for his party, and that alone was sufficient to damn him in the eyes of the partisan board. From Lexington Prof. Russell went to Richmond, where the same war was waged against him, and which Judge Scott has happily put an end to.

CHAIRMAN YOUNG has called a meeting of the State Central and Executive Committees at Frankfort today to consider the question of a primary election to decide who shall be the democratic nominee for U. S. Senator. The call was made at the request of Smith and Wheeler united in by Cantrell. Gov. McCreary raised valid objections at the late hour to a primary, but concludes his letter with the assurance that if after a full hearing it is deemed advisable he will submit his claims to the democratic voters as he is also willing to go before the Senators and Legislators to abide the results of the action of the General Assembly in democratic requirements. To a man up the tree, the scheme looks like an effort to throw down Gov. McCreary, who has the nomination won and it is hoped that the committee will not become a party to it. Gov. McCreary has voted more than once in Congress in favor of amending the constitution providing for a direct vote of the people for Senator and is heartily in favor of such an amendment, but he does not think it fair at this stage of the canvass for the committee to change the present arrangements. Besides numerous nominees for the Legislature have committed themselves in favor of some candidate and the nomination by a primary would hardly be fair to the members of the Legislature or the candidates who had thus committed themselves. The people who have named their nominees would consider it an unwelcome dictation. The voters are not demanding a primary and, as the governor says, for the candidates to get together and the committee accede to their wishes in calling a primary would be a precedent in Kentucky that would have the appearance of candidate combination against the constitutional rights of the Legislature to name the man for this office. It is suggested that the primary be held at the November election, but even if held then it would necessitate a large outlay of money. Three thousand precincts at $5 a precinct would aggregate $24,000 and this amount would fall on the candidates. Besides it would create much confusion and disorder and might militate against the county tickets. Let the committee think twice and consider long before granting the innovation.

THE city council of Harrodsburg made a coup d'etat the other night when it decided to appoint a city judge and attorney instead of permitting their election by the people. The charter is so framed that the council can choose as to the methods. Heretofore the council has allowed the people to elect the police judge and city attorney, but reserved the right to elect the mayor, collector and other officials. Acting on this rule the republicans went ahead and nominated candidates for the two offices, and there is great kicking over the action of the council, but it will be like the silly performance told of in Scripture. The vote on the question was 6 to 2, the Negro councilman voting with the democrats. The fight will now be for councilmen, but as three of the four wards are democratic, the result is not hard to foretell. There is a republican majority of 200 in Harrodsburg, but the wards are so arranged as to overcome it. All is fair in politics as well as in love and the democrats are only doing as they would have been done by had the situation been reversed. Good luck and success to them.

JOE JEFFERSON, the great actor, must think he will live forever. He is looking for 1903 now, although he is nearly 80 years old. Manager Scott, of the Lexington Opera House, who has him also for next April, has closed a contract with him for April 23, 1903.

POLITICAL.

P. Booker Reed says he won't vote for Sapp's nominees in Louisville. R. C. Browning got the instruction of Whitley for representative for that county and Knox.

Carlo B. Little, of Manchester, has again been retained as counsel for Howard in his approaching trial. Senator Fairbanks thinks that the attempt to assassinate President McKinley would result in Congress taking active steps to suppress anarchy.

Part of the money raised by the Woman's League for the defense of Jim Howard in the second trial of his second murder case has been generously used by him to pay the doctor costs of his third attempt to commit murder. Better change that name to the Female Society for Encouragement of the Fine Art of Murder.—Louisville Times.

Circuit Court began at Danville yesterday. In his address to the grand jury Judge Sauley said he felt it was the duty of every citizen in this country to express his condemnation of the attempted assassination of the President and he took that occasion to denounce the crime and the perpetrators. He also denounced anarchy in unmeasured terms. He said he was not an advocate of mob law, but he was amazed that the assassin was not torn limb from limb. He closed with the fervent words, "May God spare the life of Wm. McKinley."

John W. Buchanan, a leading real estate agent of Louisville, died of apoplexy.

ABOUT HARRODSBURG.

A week spent in Harrodsburg has changed very materially my opinion of that place. It is not the bad town I once thought it was but on the contrary an ideal little city, where good people are largely in the majority and where law and order are as much respected as any place in Kentucky. It is true that "red licker" is sold there, and a fellow hunting a game of chance might perchance be accommodated, but find a town of its size in the State where such conditions do not exist and I will name a dozen or so where they do. Harrodsburg is all right morally and the person who charges that it is a veritable Sodom either disregards the truth or hasn't taken the trouble to find out facts.

August and September are not lively months from a business standpoint and August, I am told, was pretty quiet at Harrodsburg, but September set in much better and last week was a lively one with business men generally. Several thousand people attended court Monday and an immense amount of business was done. Both banks were crowded with customers, merchants generally had all they could do, while the Harrodsburg Democrat actually had three men raking in dusts and booking new subscribers and job work. Saturday was another big day, the crowd being fully as large as that of an ordinary court day at Stanford.

Harrodsburg has more fine residences than probably any town in the State, size of course considered. There are scores of palatial homes (but those of Meers, Dan Moore and John Cassell are magnificent indeed). There are few more elegant homes on Louisville's fashionable Fourth Avenue or any where else, as far as that is concerned, and they are as handsomely furnished as they are grand in structure.

There were never a more sociable people than those of Mercer's capital and a visitor is not permitted to remain a stranger long. I must have met at least half of the 4,000 citizens during my stay and I am glad to say that I formed some friendships of which I am very proud. I was treated most courteously by the people in general, whose kindness I shall long cherish.

Everything is all right in Harrodsburg except the water and the court-house but they are had in the superlative degree. The court-house is the worst and oldest in the State and many of the good people are ashamed of it and are determined not to put up longer with it. The water is simply horrible. Not even the poorer class will attempt to drink it and many of those who can afford it get other water for drinking purposes. It comes from Salt river and looks more like cider than the pure article.

While the postoffice at Harrodsburg is well attended to, Postmaster Florence could give Postmaster Tomlinson some valuable pointers. By the way, there are about a dozen daily mails, but I didn't stay long enough to find out from where they all come. It takes a letter from one to three days to cover the distance between Stanford and Harrodsburg, but I suspect the careless postal clerk, rather than the postmaster at either end, is to blame.

The democratic party is in good shape in Mercer county and some predict a landslide for the democratic nominees. The ticket is a splendid one from top to bottom and it ought to win hands down.

I am glad to tell his friends here that my brother is doing splendidly with the Harrodsburg Democrat. The subscription list is rapidly growing and Mercer county people in general are showing their appreciation of the good semi-weekly he is issuing. Assisted by Mr. John G. Pulliam, as local editor, and Mr. D. M. Hutton, as foreman and head job printer, it is no wonder that the paper is a model from every point of view. There isn't a finer printer in the State than Mr. Hutton, who takes pride in making the Democrat look clean and readable at all times.

MATRIMONIAL.

R. M. Wall, the well known cigar drummer, will wed Miss Jessie Wood, of Ironton, O., next month.

Littleton F. Price, aged 80, and a widower, and Miss Leanna Preston, just 19, were made one at Mrs. Emily Preston's yesterday.

The Cincinnati Enquirer in its "answers to correspondents" says a lady is supposed to be an "old maid" at the age of 30, and a man attains bachelorhood at the age of 35.

A pre-marital contract was entered into by Miss Rosa Green and Mr. Telemachus Kossanly, who were married in Louisville, by which Miss Green gets an allowance of $250 a month and all her husband's estate if she survives him. Miss Green evidently has an eye to business and doesn't let love run away with her.

CAME NEAR BEING A CRIPPLE.

Josh Westhafer, of Loogootee, Ind., is a poor man, but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by Craig & Hocker.

Machinery for boring oil will arrive at Junction City in a few weeks, and work will begin immediately.

Stephen Woodridge narrowly escaped death by being thrown under a mule's heels at Harrodsburg.

Ivan C. Waterbury, A. B. A. M. Ph. D., of Chicago University, has accepted the chair of English in Centre College.

The Tip Bruce farm of 115 acres on the Perryville pike near Danville was bought by G. W. Dugan for Mrs. Roberts at $70.

The Athletic Association of Central University, has employed George F. Whitney, a last year's Cornell man, to coach the foot ball team this season.

Judge Thomas Z. Morrow has called a special term of the Pulaski circuit court for September 14 to try the case of the Union National Bank of Louisville, against the Somerset Banking Company.

Holly Strutton, the condemned murderer in jail at Lawrenceburg, has addressed a letter to the jury that tried him asking them to call and let him tell them that he made no threats against them.

Dr. J. W. Meyer, aged 84, died at the home of his son, Thorne Meyer, in Boyle county Friday, after several years of declining health. He was a native of South Carolina. Five children survive him.

The fourth trial of Doc Lowry, for criminally assaulting Mrs. Hamon Milion in Madison, resulted in a verdict for 15 years. He was given 20 years before, but the court of appeals reversed the verdict.

James O'Rear, of Somerset, in the employ of the Q. & C., was arrested on a warrant charging him with an assault upon Miss Eliza Gill, daughter of Geo. Gill, of the Dabney section of the county, as she was passing through a tunnel near Greenwood.

W. R. Dillon has, through his attorney, Col. Welch and Judge Alcorn, of Stanford, and Brown & McClure, of this place, brought suit against Bowman & Cockrell, to force them to move their boom on Rockcastle River near Livingston.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

Boyle Gill Boyle, managing editor of the Louisville Post, suffered a severe accident while in Michigan on a fishing trip. He ran a hook into his thumb, which had to be amputated to prevent blood poisoning. The operation was performed by Drs. J. W. Guest and W. C. Dugan.

The Mt. Vernon Signal says that when only a boy 11 years old Harvey Long left Pulaski county and went to the State of Missouri, and for the last 30 years had been unable to hear anything from his brother, Anderson, who now lives near Walnut Grove, Pulaski county, and thought he was dead. Recently he heard where he was and although 82 years old at once boarded the train for Kentucky. Those who were present when they met, say that there were never no two happier souls, than they.

First-Class Turnouts at Reasonable Rates. Special Attention to Travelling Men. Grain and Hay for Sale.

It's a Long Subject, but we're going to tell only very little about it. For thirty-six years—nearly thirty-seven—The Royal Tailors of Chicago have been telling people how to dress well, and at the same time cut the price. But they are better dressers than they are tellers. They are not only prepared to show "The Man From Missouri," but they are today showing the men, and young men, and boys of all America how garments can be made-to-measure—made-to-fit—made stylishly, shapely, and satisfactorily at about one-half to two-thirds as much as other tailors usually charge.

If you could be satisfied of this you would very promptly decide to wouldn't you? Well, we can satisfy you. We have the exclusive local sale of Royal Tailoring. We carry the complete Royal line, and are showing over five hundred patterns in beautiful suitings, and overcoatings this season. Every reader of this paper is invited to call—in fact ought to call, and see these goods, and learn the prices.

Mrs. ANNA D. VANARSDALE, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. H. J. McRoberts, for several months, returned to Harrodsburg Friday.

MR. J. G. HACKLEY, of this county, who was a member of Harvard's class of 1901, has a good place with an electrical company in New York City.

MISS VIRGINIA LYMAN has returned to her home near Louisville, after spending two weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. Virginia F. King and other relatives.

MR. E. A. CHILTON, the clever secretary of the London fair, was here yesterday advertising the exhibition which begins tomorrow and continues over Friday.

COL. JOHN HAMILTON, of Ridgetown, Ontario, Canada, arrived Saturday to run the business of his son, William Hamilton, who will go to Canada to be treated for gravel.

MR. J. F. RIGNEY, of the Hubble section, was in town yesterday nursing a very sore hand. He cut it while working on his farm and the doctors fear that blood poison will set in.

MR. B. N. ROLLER and wife and Capt. Robert Chappell and wife are just back from the Buffalo Exposition and a tour of Canada. They saw President McKinley the day before he was shot.

DR. AND MRS. N. H. McKINNEY, of Carlisle, were visiting Mrs. Bettie Cobb McKinney and other relatives. They returned yesterday accompanied by Mrs. W. M. Bright and Miss Florence Meyers.

W. A. MORROW Esq., one of the brightest lawyers in the State, was up from Somerset Saturday to consult with co-attorneys in the cases against the officers of the Somerset Bank, who are to be tried at Danville this week.

MR. W. C. MYERS, aged 80, and as lively as a cricket, was up from Casey yesterday and paid this office a call. Mr. Myers voted first for James K. Polk for president and has been voting the democratic ticket ever since. He tells us that he spent the night on one occasion with Mr. Polk, who had just served a term as governor of Tennessee.

REV. M. A. HART, of Lexington, is with his former school mate, Rev. J. W. Haglin.

MISS CLARA GREGORY was given a birthday party yesterday afternoon by her grandmother, Mrs. James P. Bailey, in honor of her fifth birthday. A large number of her friends accepted invitations and were charmingly entertained by the pretty little hostess. Miss Gregory was the recipient of a number of birthday presents.

LOCALS.

GOOD lot of boards on hand. G. H. Farris & Co.

SCHOOL books and school supplies at Craig & Hocker's.

ABOUT the average crowd attended court yesterday and business in all lines was fairly good.

I HAVE just received a choice lot of new fall goods. Come in and inspect them. H. C. Rupley.

ATTEND the sale of Mrs. Priscilla Brown, near McKinney Saturday. See "ad." in another column.

WE have plenty of all kinds of feed such as hay, corn, oats and shipstuffs. Cheap for cash. J. H. Baughman & Co.

SALE—Mrs. Sallie Bailey sold to Mrs. J. T. Neal her residence, storehouse and lot at Turnersville for $1,900.

FOR SALE—My residence, with six acres of ground, where I now live. Easy payments. Martha J. Vandever.

FIVE shares in the Commercial Bank of Liberty changed hands last week at $130. Mr. W. C. Myers refused $2,800 for his 20 shares Saturday last.

THE London fair begins Wednesday and continues three days. The L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets at one fare. Go and have a good time.

THE L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets at one fare to Nashville Sept. 12 to 21, final limit 23rd, on account of the Elks' Carnival and Street Fair there.

FOR RENT—The grounds and residence portion of Central Christian College, Hustonville. See B. J. Plunkerton, Stanford, or James Frye, Hustonville.

DELE.—The wife of Zack Dele died at Yosemite Sunday of typhoid fever. She was a daughter of Taylor Durham, who was buried less than two weeks ago.

J. E. PORTMAN has rented his store-room, as well as second story, to a Louisville gentleman, who will take possession Jan. 1 and open a stock of goods. The lease is made for three years.

ACQUITTED.—James Nick Smith was acquitted at Crab Orchard Saturday afternoon for shooting and wounding Walter Humber, colored. He will be tried here this afternoon for killing Sam Humber.

HUSTONVILLE.—I will have a cutter with me Sept. 14 and 17 from the Globe Tailoring Co. We will show 500 patterns in the bolt, enabling you to see just how your suit will look after it is made up. A. J. Adams.

ACCEPTED.—Hon. Ben B. King notified the republican committee yesterday that he had accepted their nomination for representative. The next thing in order now is to know Mr. King under with Hon. M. F. North.

THE Maccabees of Liberty will give a grand picnic at the fair grounds there Saturday, Sept. 21, at which there will be speaking, base ball playing, horse and foot races, &c. Mr. G. R. Wilkinson was here yesterday having printing done for it.

THE Harrodsburg Democrat, which went to press at 4 P. M. Friday, had an account of the assassination of the president as full as was obtainable at that hour. You can't head off that paper and this. They are newspapers in the strictest sense.

A NUMBER of shares of stock in the Cedar Sinking Oil Co., of Wayne county, was sold here yesterday by Mr. W. R. Williams, of Hustonville. The company's leases join the noted Neeley Company and Mr. J. W. Lockridge, of Hustonville, is president.

I HAVE placed all of my accounts in the hands of Mr. John J. McRoberts at the First National Bank, where I hope my former patrons will call and settle. All accounts not paid by Oct. 1 will be placed in an officer's hands for settlement. Miss Lizzie Beazley.

J. A. ESTES thought he had killed a burglar Sunday night. He heard a noise in the room he keeps his meat in and went to investigate. What he thought was a man came toward him and Mr. Estes fired. When the smoke cleared away he found that he had killed a big dog.

CRAB ORCHARD.—W. C. Egbert, of Chicago, with Leigle and Cooper, after an absence of 17 months, made a visit of two weeks to his mother, Mrs. Kate Egbert, at Crab Orchard. Mrs. Betsy Higgins, of Stanford, and Miss Katie Davis, of Richmond, have returned home after a visit to Mrs. Egbert.

CASH for eggs. J. B. Higgins, at the Depot.

BEFORE buying a drill, see George H. Farris & Co.

I HAVE just received a big lot of harness, saddlery, &c. J. C. McClary.

THERE was nothing worth mentioning done in the county court yesterday.

WANTED boarders at the Miller residence on Lancaster street. Mrs. A. B. Withers.

SEED WHEAT.—Come and see our Northern seed wheat before buying. J. H. Baughman & Co.

SEPTEMBER 22d is the last day for filing claims against the county to be allowed at the October term. Geo. B. Cooper, clerk.

M. F. ELKIN lost a pocket book containing $77 either on the L. & N. train or between here and McKinney. Reward for its return.

OIL.—Mr. C. L. Pruitt, who lives near Crab Orchard, tells us that he thinks he has oil lands. A well was bored on his place about 30 years ago to the depth of 400 feet and from it comes a blue, greasy looking fluid that he is satisfied is oil. Rocks broken open on the place have very much the odor of oil and he has other reasons for believing that there is oil on his farm. Oil men might correspond with Mr. Pruitt at Crab Orchard.

HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.—P. H. Hall, said to be a son of Rev. J. T. Hall, of the Gravel Switch section, was arrested at Junction City last night and placed in jail here for stealing a horse from Samuel Isaac, a neighbor. He was here yesterday trying to sell the horse. Messrs. J. R. and E. H. Beazley recognized the horse as the one they had tried to buy a few weeks ago. Hall confessed the theft to Sheriff Owens and says he wants to be tried at once. He is about 22 years old.

A DISPATCH from Somerset says the 50 per cent. dividend to creditors of the Somerset Banking Co., put in circulation in Somerset and Pulaski county over $62,000 that has been tied up since the failure of the bank August 17, 1900. It is now believed that the creditors will receive dollar for dollar and interest from the date of failure until paid, and without assessing the stockholders more than 10 per cent. It is also said if the bank could be gotten out of the hands of a receiver, there would be no necessity for an assessment.

NEWS OF THE ASSASSINATION.—The monotony of a dull Friday afternoon in this office was broken at 4 o'clock by an inquiry from Miss Sue Rout, of the telephone office, "Have you heard that the president was assassinated?" A reporter was soon at the telegraph office, where Mr. W. H. Pettus gave us the quickest service and a confirmation of the report. The news was immediately bulletined and we kept the people thoroughly informed of the condition of the president that evening and all next day. The people relied on us for the news and as usual we accommodated them. They know that the INTERIOR JOURNAL is a newspaper and never fails to get the latest of everything that is going.

FOUND DEAD.—Mr. Jesse Swope, who was visiting at Mr. J. L. Totten's, was found dead in his room at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. He was a sufferer from asthma and had had a running ulcer on his left shoulder for some time. He was not feeling well when he retired Sunday night, but neither he nor Mr. and Mrs. Totten thought there was anything seriously wrong. They heard him walking in his room about 4 o'clock, but paid no attention to it and were greatly shocked two hours later to find him dead. Mr. Swope formerly lived in this county, but has resided at Morristown, Ind., for some years. He was 65 years old and unmarried and was a strict member of the Christian church. He was a relative of Mrs. Totten and had frequently visited her. The remains were taken to Danville and this afternoon they will be laid to rest in the cemetery by the side of two of his brothers.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Eld. J. G. Livingston, Rev. A. J. Daugherty and Mr. T. J. North are conducting an interesting meeting at Pine Grove. There have been seven additions.

Eld. J. G. Livingston tells us that Rev. J. L. Allen, of Danville, writes him that he is not able to assist in the meeting at Goshen and it has been indefinitely postponed.

There were nearly one dozen additions to Broadway Christian church during the summer. The pastor, Rev. George Gowen, took his vacation by piecemeal and carried on the work.—Courier Journal.

The elders of the Christian church at Harrodsburg, tendered the pastorate of their church to Eld. M. Gao Buckner, of Mt. Sterling. He is a nephew of Rev. Dick Gao, the Confederate general. We are for him.—Democrat.

The Presbyterian church at Winchester will be formally dedicated September 15. A large debt was created in building the church, which has recently been paid. Dr. J. J. Chisholm, who was pastor of the church when it was built, will have charge of the dedicatory services.

It is likely that Bishop Dudley will be transferred to the diocese of Long Island.

The Louisville Times has a good likeness of Rev. David Bruner, of Mercer, of whom it says: He is 63 years old and as active as the ordinary man 50 years his junior. For 75 years he has been in the Baptist ministry, during which time he has baptized 5,000 people, preached more than 5,000 funerals and officiated at 4,500 marriages. His wife, aged 91, died a few months ago.

A COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Editor—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely relieved me.—W. S. Brockman, Bagnel, Mo. This remedy is for sale by Craig & Hocker.
